State Baseball Organization Satisfied to Stay as It Has Been -Bonds of $2,500 From Each Team Owner Proposed.

Hartford, Conn. Dec. 29.—No change will be made in the name of the Connecticut state baseball league. This decision was reached at a meeting here today of the committee having in hand the making of certain changes in the constitution of the league. Today's needing was given over to the discussion of minor matters and adjourned until Jan. 4, when the proposed bonding of each team owner for $2,500 will probably be taken up.

STERLING CUP GAME. aftville Has Charce to Win the Trophy This Afternoon.

Gwnership of the Sterling soccer feetball cup may be settled this afternoon at Taftville, if the Taftville team manages to win out over Sterling, but if the latter win, the series will stand a tie for the cup and one more game will have to be played.

Sterling, now holding the silver trophy, will do its best as defenders to prevent the Taftville team from anrexing the bauble through this game, while Taftville is equally determined that the silver cup would adorn the village here and that they are the boys to bring it down from the upstate district. It will be an exciting struggle from the time play is called at 3 o'clock with plenty of clever play on both

CORNELL AND PENNSYLVANIA DIVIDE AT CHESS. Scored a Blank-Chinamar

Won for Penn-New York, Dec. 29.—Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania divided the honors in the 13th annual tournament of the triangular college chess league, which ended this afternoon after four days of play. Each of the universities secred 6 points. The pair representing Frown falled even to draw a game and that university scored a blank. Cornell the winner last year, will retain the Rice trophy for six months longer, after which it will go to Pennsylvania for the balance of the year.

Rudolph Sze, a Chinaman, scored 3 1-2 of Pennsylvania's 6 points.

BUT SLIGHT MOVEMENT.

Uncertain Tone of Morning Becomes

Firm in Afternoon.

New York, Dec. 29.—A few points of leading strength appeared in today's tock market. The movement as a chole was not large. In the fore part of the day the list moved uncertainly, with intermittent periods of heaviness. But stocks showed the same disinclination to move far in one direction which they have displayed so frequently during the last few weeks. Before noon a general recovery had set in, and the list developed increasing strength as the day progressed. At the close the lone was strong.

the day progressed. At the close the tone was strong.

The firm tone of the latter part of the day apparently was due in part to the day apparently was due in part to the demand from the short interest. The heaviness of the market on recent days and the pronounced weakness which developed yesterday encouraged the hears to extend their operations today. The short interest was expanded considerably, and when the usual week-end covering was begun prices rose. The course of the market encouraged operations for the long account, and trading became broader and more active on the upturn.

Conditions in the money market were of imusual interest owing to the fact that this was the last leaning day of the year. There was no hint of the year-end flurry which is often experienced.

pitcher, but he is again as sound as the apples that grow on his Kennebunk Me., farm and will go south with the team, assured by the surgeons that he is physically as good as ever. THIRD SACKERS WANTED.

There seems to be an opportunity for some young recruit to make a name for himself as a third baseman next season. At least half of the major league clubs could use a real star on the chicas could use a real star on the three-quarter sack. The immortal Faker, Lobert of the Phillies, Herzog of the Giants, Byrne of the Pirates, Mowrey of the St. Louis Cardinals, Lord of the White Sox'and Austin of the St. Louis Browns are probably sure of their old jobs, but many of the other third sackers may be either moved to some other position or re-

Wolverton's plans may place Hart-Wolverton's plans may place Hartzeli in the outfield and bring a new third baseman to the Yankees. Grant did not do any too well in Cheinnati last year, although he may improve under O'Day's regime. Brooklyn found only a fairly satisfactory man in Smith after trying Lennox and McElveen, and Washington has released Conroy, while Morgan is problematical. Kirke of the Boston Wardmen has a chance to become a permanency, although he to become a permanency, although he was the last of a long line of experi-ments. Taylor was always apt to order a new man to third on his Boston Red Sox last season. Turner of Cleveland is not the player he once was. Detroit is trying to fill Moriarty's shoes. It looks, therefore, as if there was a chance for some new star to shine on the left side of the diamond.
